It is the act of maintaining. This is an ancient act of keeping. Simply put, the Earth sees many types of energies, both positive and negative. At the same time, black magic is used to attract positive and negative energies. However, in the act of black magic, a person uses supernatural and secret influence to fulfill his selfishness.

Like white magic, this is also the worship of spirits. Nevertheless, this process involves magic for the fruits of bad karma. Indian mythology opposes the use of black magic because it involves the spirit of perceived gain and jealousy. It is also said that people who practice black magic suffer a lot of pain.

Black Magic in Astrology

Before we discuss astrological remedies, let's understand what black magic is and how it can affect your life. Black magic is often portrayed as malicious spells or rituals used to harm others. It is based on the belief that certain actions can manipulate cosmic energy to bring misfortune and harm to individuals.

In astrology, black magic is considered to be a negative energy that disrupts harmony in one's life. It may manifest as a series of unfortunate events, health problems, or even severe emotional distress. Now, you might be wondering how stars and planets are connected to black magic. The answer lies in the celestial influence on the energy of your life, and astrologers can help you identify the presence of black magic using various tools and techniques.

Astrology as a Shield

Astrology is not just about horoscopes and zodiac signs; It is a powerful tool that can provide guidance and protection against negative influences including black magic. Cosmic energy in the universe can give both blessings and curses, depending on its alignment with your birth chart.

The natal chart, often referred to as a birth chart, is the key to unlocking your cosmic identity. It is a snapshot of the celestial position at the exact time and place of your birth, and it contains valuable information about your personality, strengths, and weaknesses. Astrologers use this chart to identify and reduce the effects of black magic.

Identification of Black Magic Through Astrology

The first step to removing black magic is to recognize its presence. Astrologers can analyze your birth chart to find out any negative astrological aspects or traits that may indicate the influence of black magic. Transits are the movements of planets across the sky, and their interactions with your natal planets can provide information about potential negative impacts. Astrologers also look for inauspicious planets like Saturn and Rahu, as their presence in specific houses of your birth chart can indicate the presence of black magic. It is important to note that not all challenging planetary aspects indicate black magic; They may also represent life's natural ups and downs.
